

ABST:

A carrier for supporting a plurality of different items in spaced apart relationship to permit the items to be carried and transported in a unitary manner. The carrier includes a divider or without a divider having a plurality of notches formed there in that each divider will hold the item to a periphery of the carrier. Each of the notches is configured to retain the items. Easy handle to facilitate grasping and carrying. A Carrier that will contain all school supplies, picnic supplies, birthday supplies, adult supplies, personal supplies, 2 - 3 liter container all in one theme package or box or plastic. A handle assembly is provided for use with cartons having vertical tabs extending above the carton for the 2 - 3 liters carrier. This handle will extend above the carton.